"It is later than you think" if e got up at your usual hour d forgot about the latest time ange. This time around they ange to leave it like it is at ast until 1975. Suggestion: Let's straighten up town street signs, dis- ourage stray cats and prepare for a big Spring Clean-Up.

The fuel situation may influence travel plans this year, so why not make this a year for travel in fabulous Virginia.

Being a New York Yankee fan, win, lose or draw, I note that the new Yankee manager, Bill Virdon, was once at Norfolk, Virginia, with Mayo Smith and it could have been at the time Appomattox's Craw- ford Davidson also played at Norfolk. I always like to work in "an Appomattox angle" for anything that is good.

Friend sent me a copy of The Nashville Banner. Excellent newspaper, and thanks. Read the following in the January 2 issue: "Prices so high one store had its bargain basement on the third floor." Another: "this guy heard that most automobile occur within twenty-five miles of home. So he moved..."

"Read any good books lately?" is more than a casual question. Latest figures reveal that there are eight hundred million illiterate adults in the world. And many who can read, do not. Appomattox has wonderful library facilities and excellent staffs, so why not use this area asset? This week I have read "The Eighteen-Six- ties" and Fueter's "World History." Plus some religious works, and am reminded that I am humbly grateful that you cause to check this space weekly in our outstanding county newspaper. Be a Booster, Crow like a Rooster, for Appomattox, A Growing Town.

We are sure that the people of Appomatox County join with us in welcoming this Lawson family back home.

The proposed amendments and modifications are con- cerned primarily with the inspection and enforcement authority of the Commission, stablizing systems for mobile homes, and with safety requirements and standards applicable to industrialized building units other than mobile homes.

State Income Tax Forms Mailed

State Tax Commissioner, W. H. Forst, announced recently that all income tax forms and instructions for 1973 have been received by the Department of Taxation and the local offices of the Commissioners of the Revenue and Directors of Finance. Forst said that orders from practitioners for forms and instructions are being mailed daily and that forms for individual taxpayers were mail- ed the first part of January.

Commissioner Forst stated that taxpayers, who must file as a resident for only part of the year because of moving to or from Virginia during the year, will use the Department's new Part Year Resident Income Tax Return, Form 760PY. He expects this form to make income tax filing much less complicated for these persons. These forms should be obtained from local offices of the Commissioner of the Revenue.

In announcing the availabili- ty of the tax forms, Forst stated that instructions for preparation of returns reflect

Concerning Your Backyard Burning

In the issue of the Times-Vir- ginian dated January 3, 1974, we printed an article "Backyard Burning Is Legal". In some cases backyard burning is legal but in the article the wording was misleading.

We trust the following article will clarify the meaning:

The Solid Waste Ordinance of Appomattox County and the Air Pollution Control Board will permit the following:

Small country stores under present regulations can still burn cardboard and other containers so long as the odor and so forth are not objection-

Primary School P-TA to Meet

"Early Childhood Education"

As a parent, have you often thought, "What educational experiences should I provide in my home?" Governor Linwood Holton said recently at the Governor's Conference on Reading that "parent participation could well be one key to improving reading programs in our schools."

Offering timely suggestions at the Primary School P-TA meeting on January 17, 1974 at 8:00 p.m. will be Mrs. Grey Ritchie, assistant supervisor kindergarten, State Department of Education. Mrs. Richie will provide realistic answers to many of your questions concerning childhood education. Research provides evidence that what happens to the child before he enters school affects his attitude toward school and his desire and ability to learn.

The Pamplin Elementary School and Appomattox Primary School will meet jointly for the P-TA meeting on January 17, 1974 at the Appomattox Primary School Cafeteria. The Appomattox Primary School business session will begin at 8:00 in the cafeteria and the Pamplin Elementary School business session will be held in the library. The Executive Committee of the Appomattox Primary School will meet at 7:30 in Room 12 prior to the business meeting.

RABIES CLINIC

The Appomattox County Health Department announces there will be a dog rabies vaccination clinic held on the following dates:

Thursday, Jan. 10, 1974, 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. at Williams Grocery, Pamplin.

Thursday, Jan. 17, 1974, 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. at the Fire House, Appomattox.

SNOW DATE for Jan. 17, 1974 will be Thursday, Jan. 24, 1974, 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. at the Fire House, Appomattox.

The fee for each clinic will be $2.00 per dog.

Farm Bureau Has Reached 100% Membership

For the third consecutive year, Appomattox County Farm Bureau has reached 100% of its membership quota for the year. They now have a total of 140 paid members.

Appomattox County is the first county in the State of Virginia to have reached its membership quota for 1974 with Farm Bureau.

Appomattox County marked its 128th year in 1973 as a county, always keeping in mind the happenings of past years but at the same time looking to a brighter future.

Highlighting the year of 1973 was the groundbreaking on April 25th for the new Thomasville Furniture Indus tries plant in Appomattox. Expected to be in operation late this year, the furniture plant will have an initial employment of about 250 persons, growing eventually to a total employ- ment of 600 to 700.

Roger Redman was named Personnel Manager for the new plant in May of last year. In August, William L. Lowe was named Plant Manager, Stewart Wiggins was named a Produc- tion Superintendent, Gene Hartzell was named Process and Quality Control Manager for the Appo- mattox plant, and D. R. Allen & Sons, Inc. of Fayetteville, North Carolina was selected as general contractors.

As the year ended, construc- tion was progressing right along on the TFI plant with approximately 100 persons working on the project.

Work had begun on the Farmers National Bank - Triangle Plaza Branch in January and the new banking facility was opened for business on September 25th.

Ground was broken in March for the new Club House at the ailing River Country Club and was completed in December of 1973.

A new ABC store opened for business April 17th in the Triangle Plaza Shopping Cen- ter, the first in Appomattox County, and the Hallmark Card Shop opened in the same shopping center later in the year.

There was a great deal of remodeling, and other con- struction underway throughout the county including both residential and business.

In the sports scene, the ACHS Raiders basketball team won the Christmas Tournament at William Byrd High School and went on to be undefeated in the Seminole District, won the District Championship but lost out in Regional play. Coach Cliff Morris was named Coach of Year in the Seminole District.

The ACHS Raiderettes again were Number One in the Seminole District, won the District Championship and went on to win top place in the Western Basketball Sectionals for girls. The Raiderette coach, Mrs. Louise Martin, was named Coach of Year in the Seminole District.

The Appomattox County Sanitary Landfill Operation was approved by the Board of Supervisors and W. S. Slagle, Town Manager, assumed the duties of Administration As- sistant for the operation with work set to begin May 1st. The container-type bins were stat- ioned throughout the county before the end of the year and the landfill was in full operation - a bit behind schedule due to a delay in delivery of the packer - truck.

In other action taken by the Town of Appomattox and/or the County of Appomattox, the Board of Supervisors voted to require all licensed motor vehicles in Appomattox County a $10.00 County tag effective April 1st, 1973 and the Town of Appomattox voted to require all licensed motor vehicles in the Town of Appomattox to have a $10.00 town tag, too.

Town Council approved the Retirement Program for eligi- ble town employees in 1973.

In September of 1973, Pro- ject - "Downtown Appomattox" was introduced to citizens of the town and of the county. The idea behind the proposed project is to restore Downtown Appomattox using an historical theme with the idea of

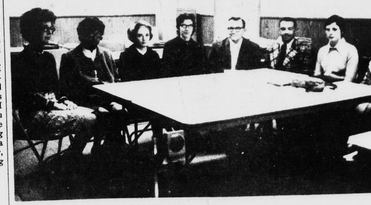
Park Installs New Signs

Two new interpretive signs were recently installed at Appomattox Court House National Historical Park.

A welcoming sign was placed near the parking area to give the visitor basic information about the park and to assist him in his visit. This sign contains a map of the village and a park folder dispensing box for after hours visitors.

The second sign was placed at the Appomattox River overlook near the Peers House. It contains a view of the valley as it would have appeared at the time of the surrender, and a caption that introduces the visitor to the "Legacy of Appomattox." The legacy was that this Gentlemen's Peace offered the country the chance for a harmonious reunification following the war.

Special Education Services In County Reviewed



Attending the meeting held Thursday afternoon on Special Education in Appomattox County schools were, left to right, Mrs. Jean Hesson, General Supervisor, Appomattox County Schools; Mrs. Alice Matthews; Miss Maude Griffin, a student nurse from Lynchburg General Hospital; Mrs. Brenda Richardson; W. H. Jacobs; Daniel W. Davis, Principal, Appomattox Intermediate School; Mrs. Betsy Keaton and Mrs. Mary McNeil.

The Updated Five Year Plan for Special Education Services in Appomattox County Schools was reviewed by the Local Advisory Committee for Ex- ceptional Children on Thurs- day. This plan provides for identification of all exceptional children and for appropriate educational opportunities for these students. The action on the local level is in compliance with legislation enacted by the 1972 session of the Virginia General Assembly which man- dates a program of education for all handicapped children, ages 2-21.

The Advisory Council in- cludes representatives from community service organiza- tions, parent organizations, and the school staff. Functions of this committee are to assist in developing long range plans, establishing priorities to meet the identified needs, and interpreting to the community the proposed recommendations of the committee. This group makes final approval of the plan
